No damages shall be recoverable by any challenger as a result of the determinations or decisions by DCBOH.
2. Contract award will be made to the Contractor that submits the proposal considered most advantageous to the DCBOH based on the process and the evaluation criteria set forth below. Proposals that are deemed to be responsive will be submitted to the evaluation committee for review. Proposals that are deemed to be non-responsive will not be evaluated or considered for award.
3. DCBOH reserves the right to develop a competitive range. The competitive range is defined as a group of competitive negotiation, as determined during the evaluation process, consisting of those proposals that are considered to have a reasonable chance of being selected for an award and who are, therefore, chosen for additional discussion and negotiations. Proposals not in the competitive range are given no further consideration.

Proposals that do not meet at least 70% of the non-price points possible (315 out of 450) may not have price evaluated as a criterion. Those proposals will be eliminated from further consideration. The chosen offeror will be the one whose experience, financial capabilities and resources demonstrate their ability to perform the services required.
2. The DCBOH reserves the right to reject or accept any or all proposals and to waive informalities, minor irregularities and technicalities in proposals received, whichever is deemed to be in the best interest of the DCBOH, and to re-advertise.
3. If responses to the RFP collected exceed the funds budgeted for this project; the DCBOH reserves the right to reduce the scope of the project. The lowest qualified responsive and responsible Offeror will be contacted to negotiate a reduction in scope and proposal amount. If the terms cannot be reached, the next lowest qualified responsive Offeror will be contacted. The method will be followed until terms are reached or all proposals are rejected.
4. The DCBOH reserves the right to award to one or more contractors.
