

Did you know DeKalb County's HIV burden ranks 2nd highest among Georgia's counties?

Help end the HIV/AIDS epidemic in your county.

Join the DeKalb County Ending the HIV Epidemic Initiative's Community Advisory Board!

What does the Community Advisory Board do? Who can apply?

The board:

- Uses a variety of approaches to reduce DeKalb's HIV rate.
- Connects the community to services and activities.
- Provides opportunities for people who receive HIV services, stakeholders, advocates and partners to collaborate.
- Promotes a movement of trust, guidance and engagement in HIV care.

You can apply if you are:

- Receiving HIV services.
- Advocating for better HIV services.
- Working to prevent HIV.

How do I apply?

Send an email to William.Carroll@dph.ga.gov or Erica.Johnson@dph.ga.gov.

How could I contribute as a board member?

You could contribute by:

- Sharing your ideas to improve HIV services.
- Advocating for patients.
- Reaching out to the public and partners.
- Attending monthly virtual or in-person meetings.
